Movie Stars Visiting Heber
 Movie stars Roy Rogers and his wife, starlet Dale Evans, of Hollywood, CA, are guests of honor at the Utah Federation of Wildlife and the Wasatch County Wildlife Federation. Mr. Rogers, who is famous for his parts and singing in western pictures, will go on a fishing trip on the Strawberry Reservoir and spend a few days resting at the Luke's Hot Pots Resort. He is guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Win. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers have recently completed a personal appearance tour from Hollywood to New York City. They have just completed a new picture introducing a new horse, "Trigger Junior." The latest picture release is a western entitled "Susana Pass," starring both of them. The Utah Federation of Wildlife will present Roy Rogers with a "lifetime" membership in their Federation, according to Wildlife President Verdell Ritchie of Charleston. Presentation will be made by the Secretary of State Heber Bennion. The Wasatch County Chapter of the Federation of Wildlife members have expressed their delight with the honor they are receiving through the visit of Mr. and Mrs. Rogers. According to Verdell Ritchie and Wasatch County Wildlife President Daniel Simmons, the days of June 17 and 18 have been declared "Roy Rogers and Dale Evans Days in Wasatch County."
